

NOTICE OF DELINQUENCY AND OBSTRUCTION OF DUE PROCESS IN APPEALS PROCEEDINGS

February 9, 2007

✓To: M(s) Karen Mitchell, Clerk
U.S. District Court, Dallas, Texas
1100 Commerce Ave.
Dallas, Texas 75242

Re: Case No.s 7 and 27, U.S. v. McLaren et al, 3:97-CR-128, 00-CV-707.

Notice is hereby given to the above Clerk and parties via of a "MEMORANDUM INVOKING DUE PROCESS OF APPEALS PROCESS AT LAW", dated February 1, 2007 with the ✓filed Clerks Office of the U.S. Supreme Court.

That you and your Office as of February 6, 2007 are in common law delinquency and are obstructing Appellant's right to appeals by: 1) intentionally forwarding this appeal to wrong appeals court, and one that has by order since June 4, 1998, blocked Appellant's rights to appeal before that court, (1); 2) have not provided file stamp copies of Appendix "A" and "B" to Appelants to their January 31, 2007, notice; and 3) copies of all Dockets sheets to date in both actions, all of which are necessary for the Appealants to complete their jurisdictional statement with the U.S. Supreme Court to docket their appeal.

Should these delinquencies fail to be corrected by your office in the next 10 days, Appellant's reserve the right to perfect default against you, your office, and all lower court proceedings. Where not already voided.

By: Mr
His Excellency
Mr. Richard Lance McLaren
Chief Ambassador and Consul General
Of The Republic of Texas

cc. Clerk, U.S. Supreme Court.

- (1) See; Page 3,, Note (4), Pharagraph 6, to Appelant's "Joint Notice", of June 30, 2006, filed with this court of December 18, 2006. Also see for copies of "Administrative Orders" By Cheif Judge of 5th Circuit blocking the Appellant's rights before and with court, are in 00- CV-707 [ Further the U.S. 5th Circuit has no jurisdiction over this appeal since it forms part of and is in contiguity within the original "Joint Notice". See: Sec.III to "Corrected Notice of Appeal", of 1/31/07.]
